REPORT

The Deco

128 Elm Grove, Southsea, Portsmouth, PO5 1LR

20th May 2007

10pm – 3am

Each of the four groups split into 4 areas.

Front / main cellar

Rear / small cellar

Top floor front bedroom

Middle floor hallway

Front / main cellar

Spirit gentleman with the name of Jim was picked up in the corner.

Shuffling noises around the cellar.

People on stairs coming into the room.

The name of Jack was picked up, who was an old gentleman – he was also seen by Rachel (guest from the pub)

There was a feeling of a number of males within the cellar, who would have done some sort of barrel moving.

There was also a gunshot wound to the chest.

Mark could feel energy being taken from him.

Breathing could be heard – almost as if trying to form words.

Taps were heard around the room, but not in response to questions or calling out.

Many shadows were seen around the cellar.

Man in a cape with a hood on stood very close to the group as if trying to make scared or intimidate.

A whistle was heard.

The name Simon was picked up.

Rear / Small cellar

Swaying movement, feeling of being pulled backwards.

Name of Malcolm was given, but was unsure if this was given just for the sake of it.

Troy started to hyperventilate and feel unwell, nauseous and dizzy.

Battery gradually drained on the EMF meter as the light gradually went out, but worked again once we had left the room.

Taps were heard around the room, but not in response to calling out or questions.

An intake of breathe was heard

Coldness was felt which would move around the circle.

A cold feeling was felt early on.

Small boy was sensed behind Skelly (guest from pub)

He small boy moved from behind Skelly to behind Karen

Suddenly an oppressive atmosphere was felt.

Felt as if a huge man was standing in the room, and felt threatened. Almost as if he was rising up to strike someone.

Top Floor Bedroom

Cold breeze was felt.
